LAST WEEK'S RECAP & HIGHLIGHTS VS. MISSION VIEJO

- Young and rebuilding Santa Margarita Catholic hosted local rival Mission Viejo at Trabuco Hills High School. The two schools, separated by just eight miles, met for the fourth-consecutive season and seventh time overall.
- After spotting the Diablos a 21-0 lead at half, the Eagles looked more confident in the second-half, especially on defense, and shutdown the Mission Viejo offense, even forcing a couple of turnovers. SMCHS won the battle of the half as they staged a comeback with 10 points in the final two stanzas, but eventually fell short, 21-10.
- Derek Wilkins led the defense with one forced fumble (that led to a score), one sack and 10 tackles. Gregory Doyle led all tacklers with 15 on the night, while Anthony Comestro chipped-in with 10.
- Shane Cova picked-up a fumble and ran it 52 yards for the Eagles first score of the game. It was their third defensive touchdown in the first two games. Tyler Hartigan registered one interception -- returning it 35 yards.
- SMCHS ran their consecutive-game scoring stream to 166 games. The last time the Eagles were shutout was in September, 2004 at Orange Lutheran, 19-0. The Eagles have only been shutout four times in their existence -- one time each in 1999, 2002, 2003 and 2004.

HEAD COACH BRENT VIESELMAYER

Brent Vieselmeyer enters his first season as the Head Varsity Football Coach at Santa Margarita Catholic High School. Coach Vieselmeyer was hired and introduced at a ceremonial announcement on February 19 by school President Andy Sulick. He comes to the Eagles from Kansas University where he held the position of Offensive Analyst, most recently.

Prior to coaching last season with the Jayhawks, Vieselmeyer was with the Oakland Raiders of the National Football League for three seasons. He joined the Raider franchise in 2015 after spending 15 years coaching at the collegiate and high school levels. While at Oakland, Vieselmeyer held positions as Assistant Linebacker Coach and Safeties Coach.

Vieselmeyer spent two seasons as Co-Defensive Coordinator at Houston Baptist University from 2013-14. Prior to joining the Huskies, he served as head coach at highly-respected Valor Christian High School in Highlands Ranch, Colorado, beginning in March 2007, where he launched the football program.

At Valor Christian, he compiled a 55-11 record (.833), leading the Eagles to four-straight state championships in 2009 (3A), 2010 (4A), 2011 (4A) and 2012 (5A). He was named the Denver Post "Colorado Coach of the Year" in 2009, 2010 and 2011 and was All Sport Jefferson County "Coach of the Year" in 2010.

Vieselmeyer began his coaching career at Orange (California) Lutheran High School, where he spent eight years as defensive coordinator. He led the Lancers to the 2006 Division II California state title. They also won the 2004 CIF-

Southern Section Championship and were finalists in 2000, 2001 and 2003. During his career, Vieselmeyer has seen 31 of his student-athletes earn college football scholarships.

A native of Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, Vieselmeyer played linebacker at the University of Redlands (California) and Concordia University in Mequon, Wisconsin.
