RECAP OF LAST GAME VS. MATER DEI

Santa Margarita Catholic completed its regular season home schedule by hosting No. 1 Mater Dei. This was a prelude to traveling to Bellflower to take on No. 2 St. John Bosco. What a gauntlet. The Eagles still have eyes on Division 1 in the postseason, but that whole scenario will be sorted out soon enough. The Monarchs turned the game into a track meet as the speed of their thoroughbreds was on maximum display in the 52-7 triumph.

SMC started with a five-minute drive which was sustained by medium-range play success and MD penalties. It came down to a fourth-down at the one-foot line and Quarterback Jaxon Potter was upended at the goal line and deemed to not have broken the plain with the ball. As deflating as that was, the next play was a killer as the Monarchs struck for their first of many long-distance plays, going 99-yards. In the first half, the shortest touchdown by MD was 20-yards. The Eagles couldn't capitalize on anything because there was nothing offered as the Monarchs played mistake free ball, except for their usual horde of penalties. They did own the time of possession in the first half, as Mater Dei held the ball for less than seven minutes (6:50) compared to 17:10 for SMC.

The bright spot was the five sacks registered by SMC defenders (7 tackles for loss), including 1 1/2 by LeVar Talley. The junior also collected five fumbles (2 1/2 for loss). Noah Sulick led Santa Margarita in tackles and Jayden Dose had 1 1/2 sacks, the first of his career.

Potter threw just his second interception of the season and was 20-of-39 (51.3%) for 171 yards. Potter has attempted 267 passes. Emmett Mosley continued to demonstrate his patch-catching ability in traffic and the moves to separate from the pack with his seven receptions. With his seven catches, that brought Mosley to a season total to 64 -- an average of 8.0 per game. Given a deep run by SMC in the postseason, could challenge for the all-time school record of 89 set by Kyle Sweet in 2014.

Most Pass Receptions - Single Season - SMC - All-Time

Receiver	Receptions	Season
Kyle Sweet	89	2014
Brian Finneran	74	1992
John Minardi	70	1997

Conner Bianchini	68	2014
Brian Finneran	67	1993
Niko Lopez	65	2021
Emmett Mosley	64	2022

The outcome at St. John Bosco will dictate where the Eagles will be placed in the CIF-SS postseason playoff bracket.

HEAD COACH ANTHONY ROUZIER

Anthony Rouzier begins his third season as the Head Varsity Coach at Santa Margarita Catholic High School. Prior to taking the reigns of the program in the spring of 2021, Rouzier coached at SMC for three seasons, first serving as the linebacker coach and then as the Eagles' defensive coordinator. The path to Head Coach started on August 27, 2020 when Rouzier was named on an interim basis. On February 5, 2021, Rouzier was named fulltime Head Coach by school President Andy Sulick.

Rouzier played collegiately at the University of Connecticut in 2005. There he was the first true freshman walk-on to start in the Division-era of the school. He then transferred to the University of Massachusetts as a scholarship athlete and was a member of two Colonial Athletic Conference championships teams. In the classroom, Rouzier earned All-Academic All-Conference honors in 2007 and 2008.

After his collegiate playing days, in 2014, Rouzier coached at Amherst Regional High School (Massachusetts) where he started as the linebacker coach and was promoted to Defensive Coordinator mid-season. Rouzier then proceeded to coach the outside linebackers at Winston-Salem State University (North Carolina) in the spring of 2015. Shortly after that, he returned as a graduate assistant at his Alma Mater, the University of Massachusetts. There he worked with the defensive backs in 2015 and linebackers in 2016.

Rouzier then found his way to Europe to coach with the Hamburg Huskies of the German Football League. There, in 2017, he was the interim Head Coach and Defensive Coordinator. For his success, Rouzier was promoted to and accepted the Head Coaching position. Rouzier was also the Defensive Coordinator for the Under-17 Hamburg State All-Star team and worked with a recruiting service that helped European prospects earn Division 1 college scholarships in the United States. One of the other German coaches was current SMC assistant coach Sean Embree. It was Embree who convinced Rouzier that coaching at SMC would be worth his while and he soon found his way to South Orange County.

Born and raised in Massachusetts, Rouzier married his wife Elwira, who he met in Germany in 2018. He holds Juris Doctor and Master's of Business Administration degrees from Florida International University and a Bachelor's Degree in Journalism from the University of Massachusetts. He is the co-creator of a children's book and non-profit organization that promotes health and wellness.

Over the recent offseason, Coach Rouzier and his talented staff have developed an innovative approach to expand the depth and breadth of the program. These activities and processes include:

- Attraction of several high profile prospects via transfer
- Individual player participation in over 55 camps, showcases and events throughout the West
- Scheduling almost one dozen 7-on-7 passing tournaments and scrimmages between all levels of the program
- Conducting multiple offsite team building and leadership events
- Improvement of communication pipeline with a myriad of team information being offered and shared. For example: first-ever preseason team newsletter
- Development and support of dedicated student-produced media programming covering all aspects of the team

In Brief: St. John Bosco began the 2022 regular season as the No. 1 ranked team in the country in most reliable polls. Those polls which didn't have them No. 1, instead chose Mater Dei, had the Braves in at No. 2. The first matchup with the Monarchs didn't go as expected as SJB fell, 17-07. The Braves brought back 14 starters from last year's team that was a disappointing 10-2 overall. The lot includes Louisville-bound quarterback Pierce Clarkson. As usual, Bosco also welcomed several high impact transfers. In some positions, such as the secondary, the Braves' field what could be the best unit ever in the state and are recognized nationally. Over the last decade, the Braves have been no stranger to elite competition. This season, they travelled to the Dallas Metroplex area for a California versus Texas showdown. Bosco took on Allen High School in week one and won convincingly. The quality of the team is rooted in the seniors -- Class of 2023. The Braves are experienced at key positions and playing with a chip on their shoulders after a loss in the CIF-Southern Section Division 1 semifinals. If one had to pick a top returning player it would be defensive end / tight end Matayo Uiagalelei, who was almost State Player of the Year as a sophomore but slipped back some spots last year due to the team finishing behind both Mater Dei and Servite (Anaheim) in the Trinity League and for the state. He has not committed to a college yet. With just one quarterback getting all of the reps this year, though, the team's top player of the year candidate once this season is quarterback Pierce Clarkson.
