Centennial Huskies (1-0) at Santa Margarita Catholic Eagles (0-1)

Trabuco Hills Stadium
Trabuco Hills High School (Mission Viejo)
Thursday, August 28, 2025 • 7:00 p.m.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME VERSUS MISSION VIEJO

With numerous storylines surrounding the opening football game of the 2025 season for Santa Margarita Catholic High School (SMCHS), ultimately the bottom line was that there was a game played between the lines of the turf by student-athletes from two high schools. Mission Viejo was the opponent making the short trip up the 5 Freeway to face the Eagles at Trabuco Hills High School.

At kickoff time (7:00 p.m.), the heat was just a few ticks under the century mark, rivaling the hottest game in school history, in terms of temperature at kickoff. Three former SMCHS players wore the red and gold for the Diablos. The gates finally had to be shut as a sellout capacity crowd was on hand. How many? Well, several websites say that 5,666 can be shoehorned inside. Not sure, but there were a lot of people present for the biggest crowd to see the Eagles play in some time. Oh, and yes, Carson Palmer made his coaching debut with the Eagles.

The defensive struggle defied the expectation of many who expected points on the scoreboard. Both schools have a boatload of talent that can detonate at any time. The Eagles managed to breakthrough first with a 23-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. Senior Tyler Wiegand spilt the uprights with precision and SMCHS grabbed the slim lead. Those would be the only points the Eagles put on the scoreboard for the night as they fell 7-3.

Joshua Holani comes up with the big stop at the goal line for Santa Margarita Catholic High School
 “Santa Margarita Catholic’s defense was incredible in the low-scoring game against No. 13 Mission Viejo. The big play was when they stuffed the Diablos at the goal line to keep the game scoreless. Joshua “Siuu” Holani came up with the big stop at the goal-line. This is our NO. 6 best play of the week in the nation.”

The game was not without hints of positive assets to build upon in the upcoming weeks. Receiver Grant Mosley enjoyed the best game of his young career with four pass receptions for 30 yards. The sophomore seems poised and confident to step forward in establishing his own identity beside All-America brother Trent.

Other new faces who emerged and gained a foothold for the future included sophomore receiver Jake Martin with two receptions -- his first offensive touches for the Eagles. Freshman Adrian Petero saw significant action at running back and combined with sophomore Jaion Smith for 94 rushing yards.

In addition to the pass-catching wizardry of Trent Mosley, the receiving connection between quarterback Trace Johnson and junior tight end Luke Gazzaniga seemed to spell harmony. The combination collaborated nicely -- five catches for 67 yards. Overall, Johnson was 20-of-29 passing (70.0%) for 205 yards. In all, the Eagles gained 299 yards of total offense.

SMCHS’s vaunted defense was present. Skilled linebacker Dash Fifita tied for the team lead in tackles with six. Sophomore cornerback Ca’ron Williams also registered six tackles. The man they call “Prime” was selected this week by MaxPreps.com as a national Preseason Sophomore All-America honoree. Two other linebackers, Leki Holani and Vai Manutai, each logged one sack.

Record Week?

- With his seven catches, Trent Mosley has caught at-least one pass in 29-consecutive games. That ties the school record originally set in 1993 by Brain Finneran. When Mosley collects his first reception against Centennial this week he will hold the new mark.
- Mosley also has 176 career pass receptions. The school record is 178 by Finneran, also in 1993. Mosley can fashion a record in this category as well.

RECENT PLAYER HONORS

21 Ca’ron “Prime” Williams
